Erie, PA (8/4/09) — Four Erie County residents currently attending law school are this year's recipients of Erie County Bar Association Scholarships. Scholarships are awarded to second or third-year law school students attending an ABA accredited school. Awards are based on several factors including financial need. Personal interviews were held on July 20, 2009 for 12 applicants. This year's recipients are Denise C. Cady, Jeffrey D. Fromknecht, Maria J. Krupicz and Elizabeth A. Lubiejewski.

Ms. Cady is the daughter of Dennis and Mary Jane Cady of North East, Pennsylvania, and is entering her third year of studies at Case Western Reserve University Law School in Cleveland. She is the Past President, Treasurer and Founder of Students For Work Life Balance; VP of Professional Activities of Delta Sigma Pi; Notes Editor for Case Western Reserve Law Review; and Copy Editor for The Docket. During law school, Ms. Cady is a student representative for West Law.

Mr. Fromknecht, son of Ken and Beth Fromknecht, is entering his second year of law studies at Duquesne Law School after obtaining his Master's Degree in Social Work from the University of Pittsburgh. Mr. Fromknecht belongs to Phi Alpha Delta, is a student member of the American Bar Association and an Officer in Circle K (Allegheny College). During law school he is employed as a community organizer at United Cerebral Palsy of Pittsburgh (UCP).

Ms. Krupicz is entering her third year at New York Law School. Ms. Krupicz is the daughter of Arthur and Linda Krupicz. She is the President of Students Without Borders Student Division; Review Editor of Global Human Rights Bulletin; and Founding member of Sentience Forum. During law school Ms. Krupicz is employed in the NYLS Office of Career Services & Professional Development.

Ms. Lubiejewski is the daughter of Thomas and Mary Ann Lubiejewski and is entering her third year at the University of Pittsburgh School of Law. Ms. Lubiejewski is involved in the Pittsburgh Legal Income Sharing Foundation; American Institute of Architects Society and is a member of the Young Erie Professionals (YEP).
