OTHERWISE.

Other:

3. The child(ren) shall be with the father on Father's Day and the father's birthday and the child(ren) shall be with the mother on Mother's Day and the mother's birthday. The hours are 10:00 a.m. until 6:00 p.m. unless mutually agreed to do otherwise.

4. Each parent shall keep the other informed of the child(ren)'s health, progress in school, and general welfare and shall consult the other parent concerning major decisions affecting the child(ren).

5. Each parent is entitled to receive directly from schools, health care providers, or other relevant sources, information concerning their child(ren).

6. Neither parent shall engage in any conduct which presents to the child(ren) a negative or hostile view of the other.

7. Each parent shall encourage the child(ren) to comply with the custody arrangement and foster in the child(ren) a positive view of the other.

8. This custody arrangement may be modified by an agreement of the parties when required for the best interest of the child(ren). The term "mutual agreement" contemplates good faith discussions by both parents to reach an agreement as to specific dates and times of partial custody or visitation, and the unilateral determination of one parent to deny contact shall be viewed as a violation of this provision.

9. The parents agree, as a condition of this consent order, to attend the "Children Coping with Divorce" seminar.

10. IN THE EVENT THIS AGREEMENT IS ENTERED INTO AN ORDER, VIOLATION BY ANY PERSON MAY RESULT IN CIVIL AND CRIMINAL PENALTIES, INCLUDING PROSECUTION PURSUANT TO SECTION 2904 OF THE PENNSYLVANIA CRIMES CODE, INTERFERENCE WITH CUSTODY OF CHILDREN.
