WEEKLY WRAP-UP

May 20, 2022

How hate speech became protected free speech in lawyer conduct - On March 24, the U.S. District Court for the Eastern District of Pennsylvania issued an opinion, Greenberg v. Goodrich, that found hate speech to be free speech protected under the First Amendment. The court also granted plaintiff, a licensed lawyer, an injunction against the Disciplinary Board of the Supreme Court of Pennsylvania from prosecuting him under Model Rule 8.4(g) for his professional use and advancement of hate speech. Facial recognition: Clearview-ACLU settlement charts a new path for BIPA and the First Amendment - The closely watched privacy and First Amendment battle between Clearview AI ("Clearview") and the American Civil Liberties Union ("ACLU") came to a close on May 9, 2022 as the parties announced a settlement and proposed consent decree that would resolve all outstanding issues. ACLU v. Clearview AI, Inc., 2020 CH 04353 (Cir. Ct. Cook City., Ill.) (motion for settlement approval filed May 9, 2022). Clearview has gained prominence and market share in recent years by amassing over three billion facial images from public sources and building a business model premised on digitizing these images and making them available to a range of customer interests and industry sectors. Market demand for this database (the "Clearview App") spans law enforcement agencies at the federal and state level, U.S. national security interests, artificial intelligence companies in need of data to develop and enhance facial recognition software and a wide array of other commercial, educational and other uses. Controversy has arisen as to potential surveillance implications and potential abuses of such a database, in the U.S. and around the world. Kindred spirit? - Spirit Airlines and members of its board of directors were slapped with a shareholder class action last week in New York Southern District Court in connection with the company's planned merger with Frontier Airlines. The complaint, brought by Wohl & Fruchter, alleges that Spirit's proxy filing in support of the merger agreement fails to disclose ties between Spirit's leadership and Frontier's board chairman William A. Franke. The suit also questions the circumstances behind Spirit's decision to reject a competing bid by JetBlue Airlines. Counsel have not yet appeared for the defendants. The case is 1:22-cv-03911, Marcus v. Christie et al.

Banq robbery? - Banq Inc., a mobile app developer focused on blockchain and cryptocurrency, sued three former executives Monday in Nevada District Court for alleged theft of trade secrets and violations of the Computer Fraud and Abuse Act. The suit, backed by Goodwin Procter and Brownstein Hyatt Farber Schreck, accuses Banq's former CEO Scott Purcell, former Chief Technology Officer Kevin Lehtiniitty and former GC George Georgiades of stealing NFT technology developed at Banq and using it to launch a new company. Counsel have not yet appeared for the defendants. The case is 2:22-cv-00773, Banq, Inc. v. Purcell et al.
