What you really should know about

Long Term Care Planning...

and the earlier the better for you!

Everyone deserves long term care education and everyone needs to have a long term care plan. Whether or not insurance is part of that plan is an individual choice based on an informed decision. As with anything, the best way to make an intelligent decision is to look at the facts, and that is the purpose of this ECBA program - to provide you with just the facts. The topic of long term care insurance (LTCI) tends to generate both questions and anxiety. Making decisions related to this important topic can be so challenging that it is easier to just put it off until another day, but therein lies the problem. Education is the solution.

To educate our members - for their personal and professional benefit - The Erie County Bar Association has asked Loesel-Schaaf to present this lunch-n-learn program. They will discuss a specific product, one we feel will be worth your time to hear about.

The single biggest mistake you can make? Waiting. If LTCI is right for you, waiting can cost you a significant amount of money. Examples of why it's risky to wait will be provided at the program.

 A special Thank You to Loesel-Schaaf Insurance in Erie, PA, who graciously agreed to underwrite the cost of lunch for this program, thus allowing us to offer it at a significantly reduced fee.*

ECBA Financial Hardship Policy:

Any lawyer for whom the cost of an ECBA Continuing Legal Education program is a financial hardship may petition the ECBA Executive Director for a reduced fee. For more information on the policy and how to apply, please contact the ECBA office at 459-3111. All requests will be confidential.

Cancellation Policy for ECBA Events/Seminars:

Cancellations received on or before the last reservation deadline will be fully refunded. Cancellations received after the deadline or non-attendance will not be refunded. If you register for an event without payment in advance and don't attend, it will be necessary for the ECBA to send you an invoice for the event.

Reservations due to the ECBA office no later than Friday, September 25, 2009.

TRADE REGULATION / STATUTES AND REGULATIONS

The purpose of the Charities Act is to protect the citizens of Pennsylvania by requiring full public disclosure of the identity of persons who solicit contributions from the public, the purposes for which such contributions are solicited and the manner in which they are actually used. 10 P.S. § 162.2.

TRADE REGULATION / STATUTES AND REGULATIONS

The Secretary of the Commonwealth can make or cause to be made an investigation of an applicant for registration under the Charities Act. 10 P.S. § 162.4. The Attorney General may also investigate any person and issue subpoenas under the Charities Act. 10 P.S. § 162.16.

TRADE REGULATION / STATUTES AND REGULATIONS

The Secretary of the Commonwealth can decide matters relating to the issuance, renewal, suspension or revocation of registrations and can take action to initiate any civil or criminal proceedings necessary to enforce the Charities Act. 10 P.S. § 162.4.

TRADE REGULATION / STATUTES AND REGULATIONS

The Charities Act requires a charitable organization to keep true fiscal records as to its activities in Pennsylvania in a form which will enable the charity to accurately provide information under the Charities Act. The records shall be made available for inspection upon demand by the Secretary of the Commonwealth or the Attorney General. 10 P.S. § 162.12.

TRADE REGULATION / STATUTES AND REGULATIONS

Under the Charities Act, a charitable organization may only solicit contributions for the charitable purpose expressed in its solicitation for contributions or the registration statement of the charitable organization and may only apply contributions in a manner substantially consistent with that purpose. 10 P.S. § 162.13(a).

TRADE REGULATION / STATUTES AND REGULATIONS

Regulation under the Charities Act is done by full and transparent disclosure of records. Failure to provide full and transparent disclosure of financial and solicitation records in violation of an administrative subpoena and a Court Order compelling disclosure subjects the non compliant party to a maximum civil penalty of $5,000, attorneys fees incurred by the Commonwealth and an injunction prohibiting the charity from continuing its activities until it comes into full compliance of the subpoena and the Court Order.

IN THE COURT OF COMMON PLEAS OF ERIE COUNTY,
PENNSYLVANIA CIVIL DIVISION No. 11358-2008

Appearances: Sandra Mackey Renwand, Esq., for Petitioner
Elliott J. Ehrenreich, Esq., for Respondent

OPINION

Connelly, J., April 3, 2009

This matter is before the Court pursuant to a Petition for Contempt and Civil Penalties filed by the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania (hereinafter "Petitioner"). Paragon Promotions, Inc. (hereinafter "Respondent") opposes. A hearing was held before this Court.

Statement of the Facts

Respondent is a registered charitable organization located in Erie County that has engaged in the solicitation of funds from citizens and businesses in Erie County. Petitioner began an investigation regarding Respondent's solicitation practices and charitable activities in October of 2006 after receiving complaints from Erie area residents and Erie law enforcement agencies. Petitioner's Order to Compel Compliance, ¶¶ 4-5. In order to determine if Respondent was complying with the Solicitation of Funds for Charitable Purposes Act (hereinafter "Charities Act") Petitioner served a demand letter on Respondent on November 13, 2006. Id. at ¶ 9. Petitioner argues that despite repeated attempts to obtain information Respondent failed to produce the requested information.¹ Id. at ¶¶ 9-14. In a final attempt to obtain the information, Petitioner served an administrative subpoena (hereinafter "the Subpoena") on Respondent on September 20, 2007.

The instant action was filed by Petitioner on March 18, 2008 after Respondent failed to comply with the Subpoena. Id. at ¶ 15. The Court issued an order dated April 14, 2008, directing Respondent to comply with the Subpoena within ten (10) days. Order of Connelly, J.; April 14, 2008. Respondent filed a Motion for Reconsideration with the Court on April 22, 2008 asking that the Court consider Respondent's pleading that had been timely filed on April 14, 2008. Respondent's Motion for Reconsideration, ¶ 9. The Court granted Respondent's Motion for Reconsideration on April 30, 2008 and rescinded its Order of April 14, 2008. Order of Connelly, J., April 30, 2008. The Court further ordered Respondent's compliance with the Subpoena within fourteen (14) days of the date of the Order. Id. The April 30, 2008 Order also mandated that Respondent pay all costs and expenses, including attorney fees, incurred by Petitioner in connection with the Subpoena enforcement action. Id.

Respondent filed an appeal to this Court's Order with the Superior Court on April 13, 2008, which was docketed at 835 WDA 2008. The record was sent to the Superior Court on May 20, 2008. On June 6, 2008 Respondent filed a Motion with this Court asking for a Stay of the Order of April 30, 2008 pending appeal. Respondent's Application for Stay of Order, p. 1. Petitioner filed a Brief in Opposition to the Application for Stay of Order on June 16, 2008. Petitioner's Brief in Opposition. On June 27, 2008 this Court denied Respondent's Application for Stay of Order. Order of Connelly, J., June 27, 2008. Respondent then discontinued its appeal with the Superior Court on June 30, 2008.

On September 5, 2008, Petitioner filed a Petition for Contempt and Civil Penalties arguing that Respondent never produced the requested information and documents and was in general violation of the Charities Act. Petition for Contempt and Civil Penalties. Respondent filed an Answer to the Petition on September 18, 2008, asserting that it had complied with the Court's Order of June 16, 2008 and produced "full and complete information." Respondent's Answer and New Matter. On October 3, 2008, Petitioner filed a Reply to Respondent's New Matter noting that the Commonwealth did request documents in the Subpoena and Respondent, in direct violation of the law, intentionally withheld documents and information. Petitioner's Reply to New Matter. A hearing at which both parties presented argument was held before this Court on December 3, 2008.

The Court must decide these issues in light of the applicable Pennsylvania law.

Analysis of Law

The Charities Act, 10 P.S. §§ 162.1-162.23, first promulgated in 1990, was intended to protect the citizens of this Commonwealth by requiring full public disclosure of the identity of persons who solicit contributions from the public, the purposes for which such contributions are solicited and the manner in which they are actually used, ... by providing civil and criminal penalties for deception and dishonest statements and conduct in the solicitation and reporting of contributions for or in the name of charitable purposes and by publicizing matters relating to fraud, deception and misrepresentation perpetrated in the name of charity.

10 P.S. § 162.2

Under the Act, the Secretary of the Commonwealth can make or cause to be made an investigation of an applicant for registration under the Act. 10 P.S. §162.4; Commonwealth v. Pennsylvania Com'n on Charitable Organizations, 579 F. Supp. 172 (M.D. Pa. 1984). The Secretary of the Commonwealth can also decide matters relating to the issuance, renewal, suspension or revocation of registrations and can take appropriate action to initiate any civil or criminal proceedings necessary to enforce the Charities Act. 10 P.S. §162.4.

Under the Charities Act, a charitable organization is required to "keep true fiscal records as to its activities in this Commonwealth as may be covered under this Act, in such forms as will enable them to accurately provide information under this Act. Such records shall be made available for inspection upon demand by the department or the Attorney General." 10 P.S. §162.12. Under the Act, a "charitable organization may only solicit contributions for the charitable purpose expressed in its solicitation for contributions or the registration statement of the charitable organization and may only apply contributions in a manner substantially consistent with that purpose." 10 P.S. §162.13(a). Moreover, 10 P.S. § 162.16 notes the Attorney General may make an investigation of any person as deemed necessary and such investigation can include the issuance of subpoenas, among other things. 10 P.S. § 162.16.

There is no dispute that Respondent is classified as a charitable organization under the Act and as such must follow its guidance.

Here, Petitioner alleges Respondent failed to adequately comply with the Subpoena first issued on September 20, 2007 despite repeated attempts to obtain the requested information. Petitioner asserts that Respondent has failed to comply with this Court's order of April 30, 2008 directing that Respondent "shall comply with the Commonwealth's Subpoena ... and shall produce all documents and information requested therein within fourteen (14) days from the date of this Order." Petitioner's Petition for Contempt, p. 2, quoting Order of Connelly, J., April 30, 2008.

Respondent counters that at all times it believed it was in compliance with Petitioner's Subpoena and the Court's Order. Respondent's Answer and New Matter to Petition for Civil Contempt and Penalties, ¶ 12. Respondent argues it has provided full and accurate answers to all materials as itemized in Petitioner's Subpoena and notes it has provided the names of its campaigns, a record of revenues and expenses, all identifying information for all of the persons and businesses which have purchased advertising, and has provided full and complete records of all distributions of journals/guides. Id. at ¶ 29. Finally, Respondent argues that the relief requested by Petitioner is not proportionate to any harm it has allegedly suffered as Respondent has provided information covering a larger time period than what was required under the Subpoena and the Court Order. Id. at ¶ 38.

Therefore, the instant dispute centers on whether Respondent provided all of the information ordered by the Court.

Petitioner's Subpoena asked for "[a] complete and accurate list of any and all campaigns conducted by [Respondent] from January 1, 2006 to the present"; "[c]omplete and accurate copies of books, ledgers, or record of revenues and expenses related to solicitations conducted by [Respondent]"; "[a] complete and accurate list of any and all businesses and/or consumers who purchased advertising from [Respondent] ... to include name, address, phone number of each contributor and indicate which Journal or Guide each contributed to"; and "[a] complete and accurate list of any and all schools and/or businesses which [Respondent] has distributed or plans to distribute a Journal or Guide."

On May 14, 2008, Respondent forwarded to Petitioner a single sheet listing Respondent's campaigns through December 31, 2007; a single sheet of financial records listing fifteen (15) line item expenses and total revenue for both 2007 and 2008; a list of persons and businesses that purchased advertising space seemingly between 2000 and 2008; and a list of schools and businesses where Respondent had already distributed a Journal or Guide. Petition for Contempt and Civil Penalties. On May 30, 2008, Petitioner wrote a letter to Respondent noting that it felt the submission fell short of what was ordered by the Court. Id. at Exhibit 4. Specifically, Petitioner argued that Respondent failed to mention a solicitation campaign, failed to submit true and accurate copies of financial records, provided an incomplete list of individuals and businesses who have purchased advertising and failed to include the requested phone numbers, and the listing of school and businesses that had received a Journal or Guide was cryptic and incomplete. Id.

Respondent replied on June 6, 2008 with a complete list of campaigns and a glossary of abbreviations used in the prior submission. Id. at Exhibit 5. Respondent also indicated that it believed the one-page financial record provided was sufficient to comply with the Court's Order. After more correspondence between the parties, Respondent submitted to Petitioner a one-page record of revenues listing line item expenses and revenue from January 1, 2008 and June 30, 2008. Id. Respondent also argued that with these additional financial records, it was in compliance with the Court's Order of April 30. Id.

Respondent asserts the information provided is in full compliance with the Subpoena and Court Order and in fact Respondent has provided more information than was required. Respondent's Answer and New Matter; ¶ 38. Respondent also argues that the Subpoena did not request financial statements or reports. Id. at ¶ 33. At the hearing, Respondent, through its counsel, indicated it was doing its best to be transparent.

The Court finds Respondent in violation of its Order of April 30, 2008. Petitioner's Subpoena requests complete and accurate copies of books, ledgers, or record of revenues and expenses related to solicitations conducted by Paragon Promotions, Inc., from January 1, 2006 to the present. In response to this, Respondent submitted a very short listing of line item expenses and one lone figure listing revenue. This can certainly not be classified as transparent. The Subpoena and subsequent correspondence between the parties when read in conjunction with the Charities Act indicate Petitioner requested and was entitled to more than these conspicuously incomplete financial records. Specifically, in a letter dated July 1, 2008, Petitioner clearly indicated that the financial document submitted by Respondent was not sufficient.

Respondent argues that it provided all that was asked of it, however, the Court has difficulty reconciling this argument with the Subpoena, correspondence between the parties and the Charities Act. The Subpoena specifically asks for a "record of revenues and expenses related to the solicitations conducted by [Respondent]." The document submitted by Respondent does not appear to comply with the Subpoena or the Court Order. The submitted document appears merely to be a summary of a few line item expenses set against one single revenue number prepared by Respondent in response to the Subpoena. The financial records also give absolutely no inclination as to how the revenue was raised or during what specific solicitation campaign.

The Charities Act was intended to protect the citizens of the Commonwealth by regulating organizations that solicit contributions from the public. Such regulation is done by full and transparent disclosure of records. The Court finds that Respondent has failed to provide full and transparent disclosure of its financial and solicitation records. Petitioner's Subpoena and the subsequent correspondence between the parties made it clear that Petitioner was looking for more than a simple summary of Respondent's financial records. Petitioner is entitled under the Charities Act to request and receive these records, yet Respondent is trying to couch its noncompliance with the argument it did not understand what it was being asked to provide. Here, the Court finds there is little question that Petitioner was seeking more detailed financial records than those provided, therefore Respondent is in violation of the Subpoena and consequently the Court Order.

Therefore, because Respondent has been found to be in violation of the Court Order and the Charities Act, the Court must determine what if any sanctions should be imposed. Petitioner argues that Respondent's conduct appears to be a calculated attempt to avoid disclosure of financial information, in direct contravention of the Charities Act. Petitioner's Reply to New Matter, ¶ 38. Moreover, Petitioner argues that the civil penalties it is asking for arose out of Respondent's pre-Petition refusal to comply with the Subpoena and subsequent demand letters. Id. at ¶ 39. Petitioner also avers that Respondent should be enjoined from continuing its Charities Act activities until it comes into compliance by making a full and complete disclosure of revenues and expenses related to each one of its more than fourteen (14) solicitation campaigns. Id.

10 P.S. § 162.16 (f) states

Any person upon whom a notice is served pursuant to this section shall comply with the terms thereof unless otherwise provided by an order of court. Any person who fails to appear or, with intent to avoid, evade or prevent compliance, in whole or in part with any civil investigation under this act, removes from any place, conceals, withholds or destroys, mutilates, alters or by any other means falsifies any documentary material in the possession, custody or control of any person subject to any notice, or knowingly conceals any relevant information, shall be assessed a civil penalty of not more than $5,000. The Attorney General or the District Attorney may petition for an order of court for enforcement of this section.

10 P.S. §162.16(f).

Moreover, 10 P.S. §162.19 notes that whenever the Attorney General should have reason to believe that a person is operating in violation of the Charities Act the Attorney General may bring an action in the name of the Commonwealth to enjoin such person from continuing such violation and for other such relief as the court deems appropriate. 10 P.S. § 162.19(a).

Here, it appears to the Court that Respondent is knowingly withholding information that Petitioner requested and is entitled to under the Charities Act. Therefore, 10 P.S. §162.16(f) applies. Respondent not only failed to comply with the Charities Act and the Subpoena, Respondent also blatantly failed to comply with an Order of this Court. Such noncompliance cannot be tolerated. Therefore, Respondent is hereby assessed the maximum civil penalty of $5,000 in addition to the attorney fees which have already been ordered. Respondent is hereby enjoined from continuing its Charities Act activities until it comes into full compliance by making a full and complete disclosure of revenues and expenses related to each of its solicitation campaigns.

ORDER

AND NOW, TO-WIT, this 3rd day of April, 2009, it is hereby ORDERED, ADJUDGED, and DECREED that the Commonwealth's Petition for Sanctions is GRANTED. Respondent, Paragon Promotions, Inc., is hereby ORDERED to pay the Commonwealth civil penalties in the amount of five thousand dollars ($5,000.00) and to comply with the Commonwealth's request for full financial disclosure within ten (10) days from the date of this Order. Paragon Promotions is hereby enjoined from continuing its Charities Act activities until it comes into full compliance by making a full and complete disclosure of revenues and expenses related to each of its solicitation campaigns. As previously Ordered, Paragon Promotions, Inc., shall pay all costs and expenses incurred by the Commonwealth in connection with the Commonwealth's Subpoena enforcement action.

Plaintiff became owner of premises of 130 East Frederick Street, Corry, PA 16407, by virtue of a Deed from the Sheriff of Erie County recorded on 4/1/2009 at bk. 1552 pg. 1964. The Defendants and OCCUPANTS are occupying the said premises without right, and so far as the Plaintiff is informed, without claim of title. Plaintiff has demanded possession of the said premises from the said Defendants, who have refused to deliver up possession of the same. WHEREFORE, Plaintiff requests judgment for possession of premises.

NOTICE

You have been sued in court. If you wish to defend against the claims set forth in the following pages, you must take action within twenty (20) days after the Complaint and notice are served, by entering a written appearance personally or by attorney and filing in writing with the court your defenses or objections to the claims set forth against you. You are warned that if you fail to do so the case may proceed without you and a judgment may be entered against you by the Court without further notice for any money claimed in the Complaint or for any other claim or relief requested by the Plaintiff. You may lose money or property or other rights important to you.

You should take this paper to your lawyer at once. If you do not have a lawyer or cannot afford one, go to or telephone the office set forth below. This office can provide you with information about hiring a lawyer. If you cannot afford to hire a lawyer, this office may be able to provide you with information about agencies that may offer legal services to eligible persons at a reduced fee or no fee.

Case #10: Legal Records vs. Record Retention

"Keep it all forever" should not define your records retention program. The legal industry has unique needs, and all retention schedules are not created equal.

Business Records Management can help you create a retention policy that can be used immediately. BRM can handle your needs with Document Storage, Certified Shredding and Email Archiving services.

Contact BRM and mention the Erie County Legal Journal for a free assessment of your office.
