COMMONWEALTH OF PENNSYLVANIA, Plaintiff

v.

UNICREDIT AMERICA, INC., a Pennsylvania corporation, DefendantCIVIL PROCEDURE / APPELLATE PROCEDURE*

[T]his Court still has not been served with the Notice of Appeal by Defendant. See Pa. R.A.P. 906(a)(2) and Pa.R.C.P. 121(b). Filing with the Prothonotary alone is insufficient. A copy must be served upon the Court for its consideration pursuant to Pa. R.A.P. 1925.

CIVIL PROCEDURE / APPELLATE PROCEDURE

The Court notes that a Statement of Matters was filed with the Prothonotary on January 10, 2011. But, as previously stated, filing a copy with the Prothonotary is insufficient and not in compliance with the Rules of Appellate Procedure, and accordingly, this Court cannot address any allegations of errors raised by Defendant.

IN THE COURT OF COMMON PLEAS OF ERIE COUNTY,
PENNSYLVANIA No. 14914-2010

Appearances: Leslie M. Grey, Esq., Deputy Attorney General
 Krista A. Ott, Esq., Attorney for Defendant

OPINION and ORDERProcedural History

Plaintiff filed a Complaint and Petition for Special and Preliminary Injunction and Freezing of Assets on October 29, 2010. A hearing was initially scheduled for December 13, 2010, but upon discovery that the case involved injunctive relief, the Court rescheduled the hearing for November 2, 2010 in accordance with local procedure. See Erie County Local Rule 1531(b).

The parties reached an agreement during the November 2, 2010 hearing, which was accepted by the Court. N.T. Preliminary Injunction Hearing, 11/2/10, pp. 86-91. The Plaintiff also presented substantial written evidence and testimony in support of its Petition. Id. at 7-8. The Defendant did not object to this presentation and the Court admitted the evidence. Defendant had the opportunity to cross-examine every witness presented by Plaintiff. Defendant affirmatively chose not to present any testimony or evidence on its behalf and did not request additional time to submit its own evidence and testimony.

After review of the evidence submitted by Plaintiff, and in light of comments made to the media by Attorney Lawrence D'Ambrosio, an agent and employee of the Defendant, the Court, sua sponte, issued a Rule to Show Cause on November 4, 2010 as to why the settlement agreement should not be rescinded, and why Defendant's officers, employees, and counsel should not be held in Contempt of Court. See November 4, 2010 Rule to Show Cause Order and November 8, 2010 Order.

The Rule to Show Cause hearing was held on November 10, 2010. The Court took testimony from Lawrence D'Ambrosio and heard argument from the parties. The Court issued a revised Order, granting the Preliminary Injunction and freezing Defendant's assets. See November 10, 2010 Order. The Court, although questioning Attorney D'Ambrosio's comments, did not find any person or party in contempt of court. The Court also gave Defendant time to make arrangements with Plaintiff regarding its payroll in a Clarification Order issued on November 24, 2010.

Defendant filed a Motion for Reconsideration and Post-Trial Relief on November 22, 2010. Defendant also filed a Motion for Recusal on December 7, 2010. The Court scheduled argument on the Motions for December 21, 2010. Neither Motion included Verifications from the Defendant as required by the Pennsylvania Rules of Civil Procedure, despite the inclusion of facts and allegations not contained in the record.

Defendant submitted another Motion for Reconsideration, Motion for Incorporation of Affidavits Into the Record and for Post-Trial Relief on December 17, 2010. The Motion reiterated almost verbatim the allegations from the prior Motion for Reconsideration and Post-Trial Relief, and also included affidavits from Gary H. Nash, Esq., a local attorney; Michael Covatto, President of Unicredit America, Inc.; and Larry Sapienza, a Pennsylvania State Constable. Again, Defendant did not attach any Verification to the Motion, nor did Defendant ask for leave of Court to supplement the record with the affidavits.

On December 10, 2010, Defendant filed a Notice of Appeal to the Court's November 10, 2010 Order. The Defendant failed to serve a copy of the Notice of Appeal upon the Court or the Plaintiff. The Court discovered the Notice during a routine review of the case docket prior to the December 21, 2010 hearing. To date, the Defendant has not served a copy of the Notice of Appeal to the Court.

At the December 21, 2010 hearing, the Court questioned defense counsel about the missing Verifications, the affidavits, and the Notice of Appeal. Counsel promised to immediately submit the proper Verifications after the hearing and the Court granted leave to do so. The failure of defense counsel to submit the Verifications despite promising to do so compels the Court to conclude that Counsel's inaction is willful. The Court declined to admit the affidavits, noting that Attorney Nash and Mr. Covatto were present at all prior proceedings and could have been called to testify for the defense at any point.

Plaintiff's counsel also informed the Court that Plaintiff had not been served with a copy of the Motion for Recusal, the Motion for Reconsideration and Post-Trial Relief or the Notice of Appeal. Plaintiff obtained its own copies of the Motions and prepared Preliminary Objections for the December 21, 2010 hearing. The Court permitted oral argument on the Motions at the hearing.

Regarding the Notice of Appeal, defense counsel stated that a copy had been delivered to the Court. Despite the missing Notice, and in the interest of judicial economy, the Court issued a 1925(b) Order on December 23, 2010, directing Defendant to file a Statement of Matters Complained of on Appeal. To date, the Court has not received the following: Defendant's Notice of Appeal, Defendant's Statement of Matters, or any of the missing Verifications to Defendant's pleadings.

Conclusions of Law

Based on the above record, the Court now turns to Defendant's Motion to Recuse, Motions for Reconsideration and Post-Trial Relief, and Plaintiff's responses thereto, as well as Defendant's Preliminary Objections to the Complaint filed by Plaintiff.

1) Defendant's Motion for Recusal is DENIED.

The fact that a trial judge has ruled adversely on a party's petition is not a per se indication of partiality. Chadwick v. Caulfield, 834 A.2d 562, 2003 Pa.Super. 330, at 571. Further, credibility determinations are solely for the trial court to decide in its role as factfinder. Crawford v. Crawford, 429 Pa.Super. 540, at 550-551, 633 A.2d 155, at 160-161(1993). Since this case is an equity action, the Court has the power to assess the fairness of a particular matter as well.

Here, defense counsel provided no accurate citations to the record demonstrating this Court's alleged bias and/or partiality. While Defendant's pleadings repeatedly refer to the term "kickback," there is no mention of the term in either of the November 2nd or the November 10th proceedings, nor does the Court ever state or imply that there was a "kickback" scheme between the Defendant and the Magisterial District Judge in which District most of the complained actions were filed. The Court acknowledges discussing the events that occurred in Luzerne County at the November 10th hearing, but taken in context, it was clear that the Court's comments were not referring to kickbacks to Judges, but rather the failure of the judicial system to address a systemic problem. In this case, the Court was clearly referring to improper filings and assignments, not "kickbacks." The Court will not allow Defendant and its counsel to misconstrue the record by making false, unverified allegations in an attempt to intimidate the Court from presiding over this case.

2) This Court lacks the authority to render a decision on Defendant's Motion for Reconsideration and Post-Trial Relief.

Since Defendant filed a Notice of Appeal on December 10, 2010, the Pennsylvania Commonwealth Court currently has jurisdiction over this matter. The Defendant is asking the trial Court to reconsider and rehear the very same matters that it has appealed to the Commonwealth Court. The Rules were not established to allow such an absurdity to occur. To date, this Court still has not been served with the Notice of Appeal by Defendant. See Pa. R.A.P. 906(a)(2) and Pa.R.C.P. 121(b). Filing with the Prothonotary alone is insufficient. A copy must be served upon the Court for its consideration pursuant to Pa. R.A.P. 1925.

When the Court became aware that a Notice of Appeal had been filed, it promptly issued a 1925(b) Order upon Defendant on December 23, 2010, directing it to file a Statement of Matters Complained of on Appeal. However, since the 1925(b) Order was issued, the Court has yet to receive a copy from Defendant of Defendant's Statement of Matters Complained of on Appeal. The Court notes that a Statement of Matters was filed with the Prothonotary on January 10, 2011. But, as previously stated, filing a copy with the Prothonotary is insufficient and not in compliance with the Rules of Appellate Procedure, and accordingly, this Court cannot address any allegations of errors raised by Defendant.

3) The Court's ruling on Plaintiff's Preliminary Objections in response to Defendant's Motion for Reconsideration and Post-Trial Relief are held IN ABEYANCE pending a final decision from the Pennsylvania Commonwealth Court.

While the Court is inclined to grant Plaintiff's Preliminary Objections, it cannot do so because of Defendant's Appeal, and in light of the fact that Defendant's Motion remains unverified. Further, the Court stands on the record and the transcripts of the November 2nd, 10th and December 21st 2010 hearings.

4) Defendant failed to file the necessary Verifications to its Motion for Reconsideration and Post-Trial Relief and its Preliminary Objections to Plaintiff's Complaint. Therefore, those pleadings are STRICKEN.

At the December 21, 2010 hearing, the Court observed that Defendant had failed to file Verifications with its pleadings in violation of Pa.R.C.P. 206.3 and Pa.R.C.P. 1024(c). The Court gave defense counsel courtesy leave to file the Verifications. The Court was concerned with the Verifications given the pejorative allegations made by Defendant in its pleadings. See this Order's Paragraph No. 1, Motion for Recusal, supra at 4-5.

To date, more than thirty (30) days after defense counsel's promise to file the Verifications, the Court still has not received any notice that the Verifications were filed. Therefore, the pleadings filed by Defendant without Verifications are hereby stricken and the pleadings are considered to be a legal nullity.

5) Defendant's Preliminary Objections to Plaintiff's Complaint are hereby OVERRULED.

The Court finds that the Plaintiff sufficiently pled fraud as a cause of action in its Complaint. See Commonwealth v. Percudani, 825 A.2d 743 (2003).

The Court also declines to add Lawrence D'Ambrosio, Esq. as a necessary party to this case for the reasons stated on the record at the December 21, 2010 hearing. See also N.T. 11/10/10 Rule to Show Cause Hearing, pp. 4-5, testimony of Lawrence D'Ambrosio, Esq.

ORDER

AND NOW, to-wit, this 4th day of February 2011, after a hearing was held in the above-captioned matter on December 21, 2010, it is hereby ORDERED, ADJUDGED, and DECREED that:

- 1) Defendant's Motion for Recusal is DENIED.
- 2) The Court cannot decide Defendant's Motion for Reconsideration and Post-Trial Relief since the matter is currently on appeal before the Pennsylvania Commonwealth Court.
- 3) Plaintiff's Preliminary Objections in response to Defendant's Motion for Reconsideration and Post-Trial Relief are GRANTED, but that decision is hereby held IN ABEYANCE pending a decision from the Pennsylvania Commonwealth Court.
- 4) Defendant's Motions for Reconsideration and Post-Trial Relief and its Preliminary Objections to Plaintiff's Complaint are STRICKEN because they lack verification as required by the Pennsylvania Rules of Civil Procedure.
- 5) Defendant's Preliminary Objections to Plaintiff's Complaint are hereby OVERRULED.

◆ How does the new statute compare to Act 57, the 2002 law that substantially abolished joint and several liability but was struck down in DeWeese vs. Weaver, 880 A 2d 54 (Pa. Cmwlth. 2005), affirmed in DeWeese vs. Cortes, 906 A 2d 1193 (Pa. 2006)?

This seminar has been approved by the PA CLE Board for 1.5 hours substantive law credits.

◆ In what circumstances does joint and several liability still apply under the new statute?

◆ What are the implications of the changes to the law for both plaintiff and defense practitioners in future motor vehicle, premises liability, products liability, and professional negligence cases?

◆ Are there constitutional grounds on which to challenge the abolition of joint and several liability in future cases, and how can you do so?

◆ Are there other arguments against the application of the new statute for your client's claim?
