The Story of “Kids for Cash” and the Lessons Learned

This seminar has been approved by the PA CLE Board for 1 hour ethics credit.

It happened in our own state of Pennsylvania. Between 2003 and 2008, a Luzerne County judge mishandled the delinquency cases of thousands of children who appeared before him. In what has become known as the “Kids for Cash” scandal, two judges orchestrated a scheme in which they were paid millions of dollars to arrange for the development of a privately owned juvenile facility to which one of the judges then sent hundreds of children.

We are pleased and honored to welcome as our Mid-Year Meeting speaker Senior Judge John M. Cleland who, as chair of the Interbranch Commission on Juvenile Justice, led an investigation into the scandal and the development of changes to Pennsylvania's juvenile justice system that will help assure such abuses can never happen again.

The Honorable John M. Cleland

Judge Cleland is a Senior Judge of the McKean County Court of Common Pleas. He has earned a reputation throughout the state for his unwavering fairness and commitment to juvenile justice during his 30+ years on the bench. In 2009, Judge Cleland was appointed by the Chief Justice of Pennsylvania to chair the Interbranch Commission on Juvenile Justice which was charged with investigating the corruption leading to the breakdown of the juvenile justice system in Luzerne County and the “Kids for Cash” tragedy.

Reservations due to the ECBA office by Wednesday, June 10.
